As God continues to bless our group, we continue to travel on a love-offering basis. We are grateful to our brothers and sisters for their generosity, and pray that this will always continue to be true!

Isn't God great?!

Product

God has allowed the group to produce a number of CD's, which are supplemented at the product table by t-shirts, posters, etc. The cost for these items is kept low in order to be able to provide them to any who would want them. In fact, the guys feel so strongly about it, they want no-one to leave empty handed, so they offer their demo CD's to anyone as long as they will promise to share the message with someone else.

The guys are especially excited about their newest project, recorded at Covenant Recording Studios in Parkville, MO. They believe it is by far the best quality produced by them to date. It takes you back to your church roots. The guys are definitely feeling their roots with it. They've titled it "Just Like Old Times" and it has a definitely old school flair. "Just Like Old Times" will remind you of the old hymn singing in church", says Dale, owner/manager of the group.

12 Years of Great Southern Gospel Music!

Our Goal

Since it's humble beginnings as a church duet in 1995, One Voice has always had as it's goal to share the gospel of Christ through song. Over the years, that goal has been met over and over as hundreds have chosen Christ as Savior through this ministry, and thousands of others have been blessed through the music of One Voice.

Realizing that their ministry is not just to the congregations, One Voice has as a major goal to uplift and encourage pastors all over the United States and abroad. As the song says, if "just one more soul were to walk down the aisle," it would be worth every effort made on that behalf. Our pastors need support, and the guys are determined to do just that.

The guys see their mission as just that, missions. Musical missions. Hearts can truly be inspired, uplifted, and changed through music. The guys don't take this responsibility lightly, and they choose their music carefully because of that understanding. The power of music is truly awesome, and God sets great store by it.

Always reaching for excellence in their music, the guys have made great strides toward becoming a recognized Southern Gospel group. From the great hits of their Gospel heroes, to songs of their heritage, this group will both entertain you and bless your heart.

God's Moving!

Early in 2007, the group began to search out God's heart on the continuance of this ministry. The guys "laid out the fleece" before God and asked for confirmation that God still wanted the ministry to continue. Agreeing that there would be no promotion of any kind from the group in 2007, they left all engagements in God's hands. It was a history making decision for the group - God has provided "exceedingly abundantly above all we could ask or think". New locations, new friends, and a brand new relationship with Andi Baker (their new booking agent), have caused the group to renew their commitment to see God's Word spread through this ministry.

Andi says, "I'm so excited to be involved with this ministry. It's so cool to see what God can do!"

The guys can't wait to see what happens next!

Our History

One Voice has a great history in Southern Gospel Music. It begins with a family that has always been musical. At family gatherings, there is always a group either pickin' or singin'. Our roots are in bluegrass, but many of our family have moved on to "pure" Southern Gospel. The pride of our family lies in our Great-Grandfather, J.A. McClung, who was inducted in 2002 into both the Gospel Music Hall of Fame and the Southern Gospel Music Hall of Fame. J.A. wrote music for the original Stamps Baxter Quartet and taught for years in the Stamps Baxter school of music. His song "Just a Rose Will Do" and his piano both reside in the Southern Gospel Hall. The roots have gone deep into this family, and the boys still long to bless folks with the old style of Southern Gospel, along with many new selections as well.
