

One Voice Music Newsletter May, 2010

What a Whirlwind!

I can't believe that May is coming to an end. It seems like it just got here. June is lurking and with it, lots of singing and travel. We'll be traveling back to the Worship Gathering in Broken Arrow, Ok., as well as 2 more trips back to Nebraska this month.

The bigger news is that One Voice will be going back into the recording studio to record a CD for radio play in the next few weeks! It's been a long time coming, but we know that all things happen in God's timing.

The biggest news is that because of the move to radio play and a more national view, after 14 years, One Voice is going to have to make a name change. There are simply too many "One Voices" out there and there will certainly be confusion. There will be no other changes to the structure of the group, simply a change of name for legal and professional purposes. This presents us with a dilemma, however. What name really suits us? Therefore, we have decided to have a contest! We welcome your submissions for a new name for the group! Here are the criteria for a good submission -

1. The name must be legally available (not currently in

- use by another group).
2. It needs to be descriptive of our group.
3. It must be creative!

We will hold this contest open for the month of June. At the end of the month, we will narrow the submissions, and a new name will be chosen by the group members and our promoters. The fan with the winning submission will win their choice of a new group tee shirt or the first copy of the new CD! Please remember to give us contact info with your submissions.

With that much going on, please pray for strength, patience, and endurance for the upcoming months. God is faithful to give us always just what we need.

You can trust Him, so do it!

Because I Paid for That

Chorus:

Because I paid for that, his sins are white as snow
Because I paid for that, his tears can turn to joy and overflow
I know his sins demand a sacrifice and that's a fact
But Father forgive him, because I paid for that.

Verse 1:

When Peter stood with Jesus there inside the upper room
His denials rang inside his head, just like the empty tomb
Till Jesus took his hands and said, "My son, don't miss the fact,
Because I love you, that's why I paid for that."

Verse 2:

At 18 years of age, I faced the truth about my sin
I knew that I was lost, I had no peace or joy within
I fell down at an altar crying, "Lord, please take me back"
And in the echoes of my mind I heard the words -
"Dad I paid for that"

Bridge:

And now I live my life to bring Him joy, and fill
His heart with pride
But I still struggle with my sin and fear deep down inside
Till Jesus takes my hands and says, "My son, don't miss the fact,
Because I love you, that's why I paid for that."

Prayer Requests

- Travel safety - lots of miles to go this month
- A smooth transition into the new group name
- Pray that our schedule fills in some empty spaces toward the end of the year.
- Finances for National Quartet Convention - we are in need of about $1100 for this event. Well worth the outlay, but expensive just the same.
- Some home support needs. Pray that God lays some of these on the hearts of His people to step into.
- Prayer partners. If you'd like to join the team in this capacity, please contact us and we'll plug you in!
